ALASKAN TAKING 13,500 TONS OF SUGAR

Bringing a large cargo of Puget Sound and New York freight, the American-Hawaiian steamer Alaskan, from Tacoma February 15, docked at Pier 13 at noon today.

She brought 2712 tons of general cargo, 461,000 feet of lumber, 3580 bundles of shingles, 15 tons of com-bustibles, 27 head of livestock, all for Honolulu, and 499 tons of general cargo and 67,000 feet of lumber, for Hilo and Kahului. In addition to this freight, she has 4000 tons of New York cargo.

After discharging her freight here and loading sugar, the Alaskan will sail for Kahului, to take on more sugar, and will complete loading at Hilo. She will then sail for San Francisco with 13,500 tons of island sugar, the second American-Hawaiian steamer to begin carrying sugar to San Francisco for shipment east by rail since the American-Hawaiian abandoned the all-water route between the islands and New York.

For New York, the Alaskan, Columbian, Mexican, Texan and Arizonan, each take 11,500 tons of sugar, but to San Francisco they can carry 13,500 tons, as less fuel oil has to be carried.

Eyes Examined Glasses Supplied

Greater advancement has been made in the optician's business than in any other. A few years since spectacles were handed over the counter like ordinary merchandise, but to-day the services of a fully qualified optician are essential in order to determine by a scientific examination of each eye—what are the correct glasses.

Kittelle Pores Over Strategy at War College

Officers of Maryland are Now Widely Separated; Old Cruiser in Reserve

News has reached Honolulu that Capt. Sumner E. W. Kittelle, the popular commander of the U. S. cruiser Maryland, who has as many friends here as probably any other naval officer ever calling at this port, has been ordered to attend the officers' school at the war college, Newport, R. I.

Capt. Kittelle is studying, with other naval officers, the regular course in war strategy. Lieut. Comdr. David F. Boyd, executive officer of the Maryland, has been made commander of the U. S. submarine tender Bushnell, formerly on the Pacific coast but now ordered to the Atlantic for duty with submarine divisions along those shores.

The Maryland herself is now lying in commission in reserve at Mare Island Navy Yard, according to Ensign Karl E. Hintze, who arrived on the U. S. navy collier Nereus Wednesday, with Ensign Thomas N. Vinton. Both were ensigns on the Maryland and have been ordered here for submarine instruction with the third division.

In the Hill liner Northern Pacific, sailing at midnight Saturday. Mails close at 9 tomorrow night.

At 11 o'clock tomorrow night the Great Northern will sail, taking mail for San Francisco, mails closing at 9 o'clock at the postoffice.

Superintendent J. E. Sheedy of the Inter-Island, who has been ill for the last few days, is expected to return to his desk in a day or two.

The American-Hawaiian steamer Kentucky grounded in mid-channel at San Pedro February 19 on a broken submerged dredging pipe, but was undamaged.

The Oceanic steamer Ventura will leave San Francisco Tuesday for Honolulu, Pago Pago and Sydney. She is due here March 6, to sail the same day for Australia.

Cal. E. Stone, passenger traffic manager of the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company, motored around the island today, seeing the scenery, pineapple fields and sugar plantations for which Oahu is noted.

Assistant Passenger Agent S. C. Kennedy of the Inter-Island says all Inter-Island steamers from Honolulu for island ports next week will probably go out booked to capacity, taking island visitors back to their homes after the Carnival.

Pier 10 and other docks were visited today by Carnival authorities to arrange for placing the grand stands from which tomorrow night's water pagant will be viewed. Capt. William R. Foster, the harbor master, conducted the party around.

New York advices say that refiners there are disturbed over the lack of

HUGE SHIPMENT OF PINES ON HILL BOATS

About 50,000 cases of canned pines, one of the largest shipments going out on one day from Honolulu in some time, will leave here Saturday night on the Great Northern and Northern Pacific, the Hill liners now in port.

The big shipment will be divided between the two steamers, in which proportion it is not known, but probably about half to each ship. Other freight, including about 30 tons of island honey, and various cargo, will swell the total cargo outgoing on both liners, to 2500 tons. The freight capacity of each steamer is about 1500 tons.

Fred L. Waldron of the local agency says about 500 passengers will go out on the Great Northern at 11 o'clock tomorrow night, and 350 on the Northern Pacific, sailing an hour later, at midnight. The great Northern goes direct to San Francisco and the Northern Pacific to Hilo, San Pedro and San Francisco.

FORBES MISSION TO WASHINGTON COST $1446.78

Expense Account, Not Signed, Reaches Fisher, Who Will Consult Attorney-General

Territorial Auditor J. H. Fisher received the expense account for Charles R. Forbes' trip to Washington from the governor yesterday. It amounts to $1446.78 in all.

The governor's contingent fund will bear $88.55 of the expense for the dinner given to a party of senators in Washington—the territorial treasurer's appropriation will pay $122.94 and the harbor and public utilities commission will split the remainder, $1225.59, between them.

The bills turned over to the auditor were made out February 10 and have been in the governor's hands since that time. They do not bear the signature of Forbes as chairman of the two commissions, and can not be paid until signed by him.

Auditor Fisher said yesterday that after a careful examination of the accounts he will ask the attorney-general if he has a legal right to pay them.

Steamer transportation facilities for sugar from Cuba, Hawaii and the Philippines. Doubts are also expressed concerning how the American-Hawaiian's plan to ship Hawaiian sugar overland to New York will work out.

The pleasure launch La Paloma, Capt. J. Miller, will leave Saturday morning on a shark-fishing trip, which will include a visit to Pearl Harbor, the Lochs, the big drydock and other points of interest. The skipper reported seeing two big sharks this morning off Kailua.

MORNING ON CHANGE

There was a general stiffening of the sugar issues this morning, especially of the cheaper stocks, which have been holding most of the speculative buyers of late. Oahu has climbed from $15 to $15.50, with neglected offerings at the latter figure at the close.

Oahu bonds have also hit the new high level of $100.75, sales totaling $20,000 par. McBryde is up from $12 to $4 above that figure, but both Ewa and Honokaa have sold off a trifle.
